Message of Welcome from the Festival Organiser

IT is my very great pleasure again to welcome you to the sixth Isle of Man International Football Festival.

This fast growing pre-season tournament has again attracted quality sides to compete, including four sides making their first appearance in the Festival.

We are delighted that our sponsor, Isle of Man Breweries are continuing their support, and the unique Okell's Barrell Trophy, will once again be presented to the winning team.

The Festival is truly International, with teams from England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and the Isle of Man competing. St. Mirren, who started it all off with Sunderland and the Isle of Man in 1982 will be making their fourth appearance in the Festival, and the Isle of Man have participated in every one.

Bolton Wanderers, winners of the 1988 Lancashire Manx Cup, from the English League, Dundalk from the League of Ireland and Scottish Premier side Motherwell will be making their debut, as will Swansea City who will be the first Welsh club to enter. One thing is certain, a new name will appear on the trophy.

We are all looking forward to some exciting matches over the week, and I would like to thank the Boards and Managements of the teams for their excellent co-operation and wish all the teams the best of luck.

Finally, I would like to thank all our sponsors for their tremendous support, which is really appreciated by all concerned with the Festival, and to welcome all the fans who have travelled to our friendly Island to enjoy a feast of football.

Message from Our Sponsor

I AM most pleased to welcome everyone to the 1989 Isle of Man Breweries International Football Festival following last years' unfortunate cancellation.

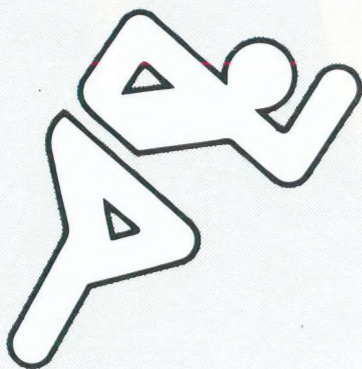

I am aware of the value of this Festival not only to the players for pre-season competition but also the spectator opportunity to both resident and visitor alike to witness high-class football.

I wish everyone involved a most successful Festival of football sport.

The Festival —

A brief history . . .

THE Festival all started in 1982 when St. Mirren wanted to have a week's pre-season training on the Isle of Man. It was all arranged, and then Sunderland contacted them to play a friendly match, and it was suggested that this should take place on the Island; the Isle of Man National XI were also invited, and they played a series of matches.

For 1983 it was decided to organise a Festival, Gore Advertising were approached to act as sponsor, they produced a Gold Cup for competition and the Festival was launched. There were four teams in 1983, the three from 1982 being joined by Burnley. The first winners of the trophy were Sunderland.

In 1984 the number of teams invited was increased to six — St. Mirren, Sunderland, and the Isle of Man were again competing, and they were joined by Blackburn Rovers, Carlisle United, and the first Irish side, Athlone Town. The competition was played on a two league basis for the first time with the winners of each league, Sunderland and Blackburn, meeting in the Final, and Sunderland retained the trophy.

1985 was the Island's Year-of-Sport — and the number of clubs invited was increased to eight. It was an all English competition, apart from the Isle of Man, Blackburn Rovers and Carlisle United returned, and Manchester City, Leicester City, Newcastle United, Stoke City and Wigan Athletic made their debuts.

Blackburn and Stoke topped their leagues, and it was Rovers who took the trophy. There were new sponsors for 1986, Okell's Brewery, and they presented a unique Barrell Trophy for the competition. There were again eight teams, Newcastle United, Blackburn Rovers, Portsmouth, Stoke City, Wigan Athletic, Heart of Midlothian, Bohemians and the Isle of Man.

Portsmouth and Wigan topped their groups, but it was third division Wigan who were the first winners of the trophy.

It was eight teams again for 1987, Hibernian and Dundee from Scotland, Stoke City, Oldham Athletic, Wigan Athletic and Bury from the English league, Galway United from Ireland, and the Isle of Man. In the league games Dundee rattled in a stack of goals, but it was Stoke City who took the trophy.

Regrettably, the Festival had to be cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

But it's back this year as a truly International event with teams from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Isle of Man. It's now the Isle of Man Breweries who are the main sponsor, but it is still that unique Okell's Barrell that the teams will be striving for.

RULES

1. The Competition shall be governed in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of The Football Association. Matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game as settled by the International Football Board. The Competition shall be called The Isle of Man Breweries International Football Festival.
2. An independent Management Committee comprising of the Executive Committee of the Isle of Man Football Association shall be appointed to organise the Competition.
The Management Committee shall have the power to apply, act upon and enforce the Rules of the Competition and shall also have jurisdiction over all matters affecting the Competition, including any not provided for by The Rules.
The Management Committee shall also adjudicate in all cases of dispute, protest and complaint.
Other Members may be co-opted if required.
3. (a) Each competing team shall register its first and second choice of colours at least seven days before the date of the Competition.
In the event of a clash of colours, the second name Team in the draw shall change.
(b) Players shall be dressed in uniform shirts and shorts but the goalkeeper's dress must be distinguished from that of other players. Neither goalkeepers nor other players may wear shirts in black or similarly dark colours.
4. (a) The Competition shall be played on a two league basis. Each team shall play one match against each other in respective League. The winners of each League shall play one another in the Final. Two points shall be awarded for a win and one point for a draw.

In the event of any teams being level on points, the team(s) with the superior goal difference shall take precedence.

In the event of Goal Difference being equal, the team with the most goals for shall take precedence. The Goal Difference shall be calculated by subtracting the goals against from the goals for.

- (b) All matches shall be of 45 minutes duration each way.

ALWAYS THERE FOR FINANCIAL ADVICE

With some justification, we claim you couldn't meet a nicer group of fellows. When asked, one, two or perhaps three will admit to being quite good golfers; a couple will say ex-footballers, crown green bowlers or even cricket fans. There's every chance you'll meet them informally on the Island somewhere, sometime. For sure we'd like you to meet one at work, the manager of our bank, the one that's just around the corner.

It's our proud boast when you bank with us, you'll be well served for life, with a pension, a mortgage or business development loan and much more.

For further information, just call at one of our 15 branches throughout the Island.

You'll get some sound financial advice ... perhaps a cup of tea ... and a chat about your interests or hobbies.
